BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

G'P'R—15,000—24-4-09.

Extract from the file relating to the question of reducing the number of Senior Assistant Commissioners from 8 to 7.

(C.L.File no.66 of 1914.)

)- - - - - - - - - - - - - -

I agree that the number of Senior Assistant Commissioners may be reduced by one, i.e.,from 8to7. Assistant Comptrollers who are in the grade of Assistant Commissioners should certainly be eligible for promotion to the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioner in their turn in ordinary course. If there is any doubt about it in the existing orders the point may kindly be made clear.

In view of the [illegible] in the Rules of [illegible] [illegible] by the Secretary of the Judicial Department, the number of Senior Assistant Commissioners may be reduced by one - that is, from 8 to 7.

The three permanent vacancies thus caused among the Senior Assistant Commissioners may be filled up by the confirmation of the following officers who are now acting in that class.

1. Mr.L.Krishna Rao.
2. Mr.F.G.D'Souza, B.A.,B.L.
3. Mr.Nagar Subba Rao.

NOTE.—Contin sheet.

GPB—5,000—26-6-11

Submitted to His Highness.

These papers relate to the filling up of certain vacancies among Senior Assistant Commissioners caused by the promotion of the marginally noted officers as Deputy Commissioners.

1. Mr. V. R. Thyagaraja Iyer.
2. Mr. K. Krishna Iyer.
3. Mr. P. F. Bowring.
4. Mr. C. S. Balasundaram Iyer.

2. Consequent on the amalgamation of the Judicial, Accounts, Revenue and other Departments as per Civil Service Rules of 1906, the number of Assistant Commissioners was increased from 40 to 73 and the strength of the Senior Assistant Commissioners was correspondingly raised from 5 to 8 to give scope for promotion to the Assistant Commissioners of the various Departments. But in January last, according to the revised Civil Service Rules, the Registrar of the Co-operative Societies and 4 officers of the Judicial Department were removed from the cadre of Assistant Commissioners, thereby reducing the number of Assistant Commissioners to 68. This latter figure has been further reduced by 2 owing to a reduction of the number of Assistant Comptrollers by one as per reorganization scheme lately sanctioned and the temporary abolition of the Bangalore Revenue Sub-Division.

3. Proportionately to the existing number of Assistant Commissioners, the number of Senior Assistant Commissioners admits of being reduced by one. The Financial Secretary having agreed to this proposal, the matter was discussed in Council and it was resolved that the number of Senior Assistant Commissioners be reduced from 8 to 7. This will reduce the number of permanent vacancies now existing among the Senior Assistant Commissioners from 4 to 3.

4. The Council is of opinion that the marginally noted officers who are acting as Senior Assistant Commissioners may be confirmed in these vacancies.

1. Mr. L. Krishna Rao.
2. Mr. P.G.D'Souza.
3. Mr. Nagar Subba Rao.

5. The gracious sanction of His Highness is solicited to the above proposals.
